BEFORE THE TEXAS BOARD OF NURSING

In the Matter of	§	AGREED

issued to VANESSA LEIGH EIXMAN	§	ORDER

7. On or about September 20, 2011 while employed as Staff/LVN Charge Nurse with Manor Oaks Nursing Center, Rockdale, Texas, Respondent failed to assess and/or document a complete focused assessment when Respondent was informed during change of shift report that Patient RP was making a stridor sound (a high-pitched wheezing sound resulting from turbulent air flow in the upper airway) when exhaling. Respondent states that when the patient care assistant notified her and the Director of Nursing (DON) that the patient might be gone, they rushed to the room and the DON did an assessment and said he was gone. Respondent states she called the Nurse Practitioner who stated she was on her way, and when she and the DON returned to the desk, they were informed by another nurse that the resident was a full code and the DON directed her to call 911, but then told Respondent to cancel the 911 because the family had been contacted and they did not want the patient transported. Respondent states she did what the DON told her even though she disagreed.
