She has consistently maintained her medication and recognizes when she and her doctor need to adjust them before reaching a crisis state. Petitioner's depression has been controlled for several years now and she is no longer in denial about the need for maintenance. Petitioner has made remarkable strides in her personal growth. She has walked through difficult step-parenting issues, a brother's serious car accident, and other challenges life has brought utilizing all the tools and support her recovery has brought her. During that period of time, Mr. Briley has watched Petitioner grow as an individual who regularly attends Narcotics Anonymous (NA) and actively works to maintain her recovery. Within NA, Petitioner serves as treasurer of her group and has been entrusted with the responsibility of locking up the church where the meetings are held. As a friend and nurse anesthetist who has practiced for more than twenty (20) years, Mr. Briley can sincerely and without reservation, recommend that Petitioner be reinstated.

Mr. Atkinson has seen Petitioner come to terms with her drug use and stay drug free for over eight (8) years. She has expanded her involvement in the recovery community, attending conventions, retreats, and participating in voluntary service work. At times, a number of health care professionals have come to the group looking for support and Petitioner has always been there to relate her experience. Mr. Atkinson supports Petitioner's decision to return to the health care profession and knows she has the foundation and resources to succeed in whatever field she chooses.
