Dear Ms. Reeves:

Your Petition for Licensure Reinstatement and the supporting information related to your potential ineligibility for relicensure was considered by the Executive Director on July 6, 2020.

You have been found to be ineligible for reinstatement of licensure as a nurse in the State of Texas based upon the grounds discussed below. This is a final determination of licensure reinstatement denial.

Our records indicate the following:

On or about October 21, 2014, Respondent entered a plea of Guilty to and was convicted of INTOXICATION MANSLAUGHTER WITH A VEHICLE, a Second Degree felony offense, committed on November 21, 2012, in the Gregg County District Court No. 124, Longview, Texas, under Case No. 42273-B. As a result of the conviction, Respondent was sentenced to confinement in the State Jail Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Longview, Texas, for a period of ten (10) year; however, imposition of the sentence of confinement was suspended, and Respondent was placed on probation for a period of ten (10) years, and ordered to pay restitution in the amount of sixty dollars ($60.00), along with a fine and court costs.

Texas Occupations Code §301.4535 requires the denial of licensure for certain criminal history. Our records indicate that your criminal history falls within the requirements of §301.4535. Pursuant to §301.4535(b), may not issue a license to an applicant on proof that the applicant has been finally convicted or pled guilty or nolo contendere to an offense listed under section 301.4535(a)¹. Finally, subsection (c) of that law states that a person is not eligible for an initial license or for reinstatement or endorsement of a license to practice nursing in this state before the fifth anniversary of the date the person successfully completed and was dismissed from community supervision or parole.

¹ TEX. OCC. CODE §301.4535 applies to an initial conviction, final conviction, or plea of guilty or nolo contendere for a crime listed in subsection (a) that occurred on or after September 1, 2005.

Further, §213.28(k)(1) provides that the Board is required under Texas Occupations Code §301.4535(b) to deny an individual initial licensure or licensure renewal and to revoke an individual's nursing license or privilege to practice nursing in Texas upon a final conviction or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere for a criminal offense specified in §301.4535(a).

Further, the factors set out in 22 Texas Administrative Code §213.33 and §213.28(h) and Texas Occupations Code Chapter 53, specifically §53.022 and §53.023, do not apply in a case subject to Texas Occupations Code §301.4535. The State Office of Administrative Hearings has decided this question on several previous occasions.²

22 Tex. Admin. Code §213.28(k)(1) and Texas Occupations Code Chapter 301, are hereby incorporated by reference herein and may be located on the Board's website at www.bon.texas.gov.

You will not be allowed to petition for reinstatement until at least one (1) year from the date of this denial and until you have satisfied any conditions outlined in your order and any requirements required by law at the time of your application.

Due to this denial, you have the right to a public hearing before an Administrative Law Judge with the State Office of Administrative Hearings. Should you decide to appeal the decision to deny you licensure, please submit a written request for a public hearing, to the attention of Office of General Counsel, 333 Guadalupe, Suite 3-460, Austin, Texas, 78701. Your written request to appeal this decision must be received in our office within sixty (60) days of the date of this letter. Further, if this office receives information regarding additional criminal conduct or behavior that has not been previously disclosed to or discovered by this office, please be advised that evidence of such additional criminal conduct or behavior may be used against you during the public hearing in this matter to show that you lack the good professional character and other requirements for licensure.

Further, should the decision to deny your licensure be upheld by the State Office of Administrative Hearings, you will be entitled to judicial review by filing an action in the district court of Travis County, Texas. A petition for such an action must be filed not later than the 30th day after the date the licensing authority's decision is final and appealable.

If you have any questions, please contact Enforcement at (512) 305-6838.

Sincerely,

Katherine A. Thomas, MN, RN, FAAN
Executive Director
