Respondent's conduct deprived the resident of her dignity and unnecessarily compromised the resident's skin integrity.
9. In response to Finding of Fact Number Eight (8), Respondent states the resident's foley cath was in place, and it was leaking scant amounts judging by the wetness of the incontinent pad. He states he has to mention he was not comfortable changing the foley cath on this resident because she was heavily contracted on her lower extremities. He states he required assistance and there was no one to help. Respondent further states he talked to his DON about this, and was told to call Hospice if he was having problems.
